WEEKLY TIP by your Community Officer

What happens when you go to the Court?

Before doing so, depending on the seriousness of your offence, you may be held in custody (surprise!). Then there's the appearance before the judge, where you will plead guilty or not. In the meantime, the investigation continues until the trial, which can take a long time, possibly months, so the stress is quite high. Finally, the judge renders his decision. Just in passing, it's often forbidden to communicate with some of your friends while all this is taking place. If you don't comply with this rule, the judge could be more strict.
