As these pictures will be done internally, there is no option to order these. It will be strictly used for the ID card

“24h Challenge”: What if, for one day, we put down our screens? On November 23rd, the organization Capsana, in collaboration with the Government of Quebec, the ÉPIC Foundation, and the PSI Foundation, is launching a seemingly simple challenge: 24 hours without screens (for leisure, at least!). The "24h Pause Challenge" aims to help us, young and old, reflect on our relationship with digital technology while taking care of our well-being. Participants can choose from these four challenges:

- The ultimate challenge: 24 hours without any screens (cell phone, TV, console, computer, tablet) for entertainment
- 24 hours without social media
- 24 hours without video games (yes, even on your phone!)
- 24 hours without streaming (yes, that includes YouTube and Netflix!)

Why not discuss it? Ask your child which challenge they would choose... and, perhaps take on a little friendly family competition:) It's a great opportunity to talk about our digital habits. As a bonus, by signing up for the challenge, you have a chance to win $1,000. Not bad for a notification-free day, right? Let's disconnect to better reconnect together!
